WHITE MAY NOT BE CHOSEN

German Mission Likely to Go to Ex-Governor Merriam.

REASONS FOR THE CHANGE

President McKinley Has Almost Decided to Appoint Herbert Bowen Minister to Spain-New York Already Has Two Fat Plums-Would Not Do to Give It Two More.

Sernter Thomas C. Platt was an early visitor at the White House today. He was ccompanied by Chairman Hackett, of the New York Republican State committee. The two distinguished visitors spent some time with the President. Senator Piatt's mission was in relation to the appaintment of Andrew D. White who is slated for the German ambassador yae "easy boss" is raid to have grown impatient at the President's delay in send ing Mr. White's name to the Senate. Presi ent McKinley's mind, however, is not en tirely made up in regard to Mr. White's appointment, and it is barely possible that another man will be selected to fill the important mission That man is said to be ex-siov William R. Merriam, of Minueota.

Merriam was mentioned for the place at the outset of McKialey's Administration. and it was freely asserted that his name would be one of the first sent to the Scante Since White became such a formidable candidate in the race Merriam by his friends, who have never lost an opportunity to orge his appointment upon the President

White Mr. McKinley, it is said, has the highest personal esteem for White, and thinks that he would make a most ex-cellent representative of this government at the Berlin court, he has reasons why he does not want to appoint him.

One of these reasons, and indeed the only arrier in the way of White's appointment, is the candidacy of Gen. Herbert W. Eowen asminister to Spain Both White and Bowen are New York men and would make good inlomatic representatives.

Bowen is so strongly indersed for the spanish mission, however, that it is thought the President cannot fail to consider his claims. His beroic conduct while coasul ceneral at Barcelona, during the scene of the extraordinary manifestations of ho tility against the United States consulate on the 1st of March, 1896, is another thing that is said to commend Bowen to the President's consideration. In fact, it to said that Mr. McKinley's mind is already made up to appoint Bowen. As New York already has one foreign ambassa Sorship in Sen. Berace Porter, who was lately appointed minister to France, and Cal met position, the President is said to have decided to go outside of the State or a man to fill the German mission. Senator Platt's face were a troubled look as he left the President's office this morning, and for the first time he expressed doubt as to White's appointment. Quesreporter, be said:

"Mr. White's nomination will go to the Senate in a few days, if at all." awiter 'easy bose' nas always been san mine of White's appoint next since his nam was first mentioned in coanection with the German ambassadorship, this expression of doubt is significant. Another "notable" caller today was ex-Representative Draper, of Massachusetts, who is slated as ambassador to Italy. Gen. Draper's appointment seems to have been agreed upon, and his nomination for the important position is expected to go to the Senate in a few days.

Mr. Draper remained with the President for several minutes, during which time he took occasion to show a letter he recently received from Bon Clifton R Breckinridge, who is at present ambassador to Mr. Breckinridge, in his letter to the ex-Congressman, takes occasion to praise the new Administration as follows. Hon. Henry Clay Evans, of Tennesse of Pensions, called to pay his respects to the President. Mr. Evans also took occasoon to thank the President for his ap-Scuator Mason introduced to the President Max Bauchsein, of Chicago, who wants to secure a foreign consulship.

Another distinguished politician who saw Mr. McKinley during the morning was Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, who was prominently mentioned for a Cabine cosition. Mr. Woodford sald that his visit to the President was purely of a social nature, and had no political significance Ex-Gov. Oates, of Alabama, called to pay his respects. Notwithstanding the distinguished Southerner was politically opposed to Mr. McKinley during the campaign, he entertains the highest personal regard for him, and spent a few minutes discussing with the new Executive ren iniscences of days spent together in Congress. Gov. Oates told Mr. McKinley that he was one of the few men in the United States who didn't want an office.

Senator Burrows saw the President in regard to the appointment of O L. Spaniding, of Michigan, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. McKinley gave the Michigan statesman to understand that olding would be appointed to the posisaid to Have Obtained $4,000 From Postmaster General Siewart. Complainant a Brooklyn Man.

ACCUSED OF DISHONESTY

E. J. Barrett Arrested for Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

Headquarters Detectives Boyd and Helat made what appears to be an important ar rest about noon today. Armed with a war rant sworn out by Edwin Stewart, pay master general of the Navy, they went to the Washington Loan and Trust Company suilding, Ninth and F streets, and placed nder arrest E. J. Barrett, who represents himself to be local manager of the National

Lumber Company. The serious charge against Barrett is that he received from the Government, by false pretenses made to Paymaster eral Stewart, the sum of $4,090.06, alleging that he was the duly accredited representative and collector of Ulrich faurer, a wealthy Brooklyn business man It is alleged that Maurer formshed a large quantity of lumber for a naval contract and Barrett, his local representative, colment, $4,090.06, without Maurer's an Barrett, with his counsel, Mr. Bay, and Detective Helan went before Judge Kin ball this afternoon, and bonds were fixed at $5,000 and a hearing set for Satur day. The prisoner was then turned over to Deputy Marshal McCormick, and unless he furnished ball this afternoon will be sent to inil.

Paymaster General Stewart, when seen by a Times reporter this afternoon, with regard to the arrest of Barrett, said: "The Navy Department has no concer whatever with this matter. It made contract with E. J. Barrett & Company, to furnish it with certain supplies. the time for payment came the check for $4,090 was made out in regular form to the order of E. J. Barrett & Company and maded to Mr. Barrett by the disbursing officer. far as the Department was concerned. I have heard since, however, that there is a partnership squabble on account of the money by Barrett, but that, as I have said before, will have to be settled among the members of the company, and not by the Navy Department."

TARIFF BILL TO DATE BACK HERDICS TO RUN NO MORE of the "unfathomable wisdom of the United States Senate. Mr. Berry asked what was the use of this retroactive feature, when the law would raise millions more than was wanted. providing that every manufacturing concern employing more than thirteen me abould report on its business annually, and that after taking out an 8 per cent dividend, half the remaining profits be distributed to the employes.

On a point of order against it, he said the provision was in line with the professed purpose of the bill to benefit American labor. If the committee was sincere in its profession that the bill was for the benefit of workingmenandnotofthemanufacturers would not rule out this amenda The point of order was sustained, and the amendment of Mr. Grosvenor passed. Mr. Grow took an opportunity to urge the advantages of protection, and at the same time apologized to Mr. Vandiver, of Missouti, for his rude reply a few days ago, when he said the Missourian had not he sense to understand figures.

Mr. Hartman made an earnest speech, in which he said if, the Dingley bill became a law it would be by permission of an antigold majority in the Senate. He thought some of the Democrat's had made too much of this protective tariff by the attention they had givenit. It might pass. It could not bring prosperity.

There was no use to pile up manufactures without giving the thirty millions of far-mers of the country the money with which to buy them. The goods must remain upon the shelves. There was no hope till suitabel financial legislation was effected, by which currency sufficient to transact business would be given the people. He becied a great victory for free silver in 1900, and said it made no difference who night be the leader, there would be a united front and victory.

Mr. William A. Smith said there had been no opportunity to offer amendments to the bill and was applauded by the Democrats. He then said he objected to Mr. Hartman speaking as a silver Republican. Mr. Bartman had come into his district and spoken for his opponent. This brought applause from the Republicans

Mr. Sayers offered an amendment mak-ing cotton ties free. He asked for relief to the planters.

Mr. Hopkins said cotton thes had fallen in price under the protective tariff.

This was denied by Judge Sayers, Mr. Ailen and other Southern members, som whem declared they spoke from actual xperience as purchasers.

Mr. Brumm spoke very energetically in nswer to the call for more money to show that the way to get it was to stime late manufactures, and bring in English and German gold. To an interruption be replied that the Democrats had thick hides and thick heads Mr. Williams replied that he had heard

"plantation manners" criticised by those who knew nothing of them. There were worse manners, which he would call "ke-publican manners." But the Republicans would find they cold not prove a protective tariff : enefit to the people by cailing Democrats fools. He then gave Mr. Brumm a lesson in political economy on the difference be tween price and value, of which he said the gentleman seemed totally ignorant. The Pousein committee of the whole has voted—150 to 120-to adopt the new sec-tion proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means, making the duties of the bill take effect on importations ordered after

RETROACTIVE AMENDMENT.

If Adopted the New Tariff Will Take Effect Tomorrow. The following is the text of the new

DEATH OF THOMAS M. DRANEY. Well-Known Horseman Succumbs to Strangulated Hernia.

Thomas M. Draney, manager of the Draney stables, Nos. 643 and 645 New Yorkavenue, and son of Contractor Draney, died at 3 o'clock this morning at his res idence, No. 222 N street northwest. The death of this well-known man was sudden and will shock a wide circle of acquaint

His pain and distress alarmed the family, and medical aid was called. Dr. McDonald responded, and at the solicita-Rabbitt were soon beside the couch of the

The cause of the attack was pronounced strangulated herita, and it was decided that his life could be saved only by a sur-gical operation, and that even the efficacy measure would be doubtful. The operation was performed at the family home yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, and for a time it seemed that the patient railled. As the day progressed, though,

All These Public Conveyances Will Be Withdrawn Tonight.

Whole Outfit Bought From the Potts Estate by One Man, Who Now Wants to Sell-Twc-Wheelers to Be Continued-Large Number of Men Thrown Out of Work.

The herdics which for seventeen years have plied on the streets of Washington will tonight at midnight be withdrawn and the franchise surrendered. The first news of this purpose, which was as much of surprise to the employes as to the general public, was a notice posted in the herdics sterday moratng as follows: "The herdic coaches will be withdrawn from operations by the Herdic Phaeton Company at the close of business March 31, 1897. All persons holding tickets of this company can have them redeemed upon escatation at office, Tenth and C streets It was known, however, that ever since the death of Col. Joseph D. Potts, the principal stockholder and practical owner of the company three years ago, his betrs have been anxious to dispose of the property as a whole, and settle the estate. A deal to this effect was consummated on the 26th of this month, when a meet ing of all the stockholders transferred the property to a single purchaser. The company thereupon dissolved and its whole business has since been conducted by the new owner. The deal was consummates so quietly that not a whisper of the affair reached the public.

The details of the purchase have not been divulged, but it is known that the purchaser is a wealthy resident of Chester county, Pa., and that the consideration for which the transfer was made was highly satis factory to every stockholder.

The order withdrawing the herdict serve emanates from the new managemen which has decided to dispose of it either as a whole or by an auction of its effects. The property will be held until a week from today, awaiting a purchaser of the ines In their entirety; after that the cerdics, harness, horses, and property will re advertised for public scale in sections. The herdic cabs, seating four persons will, however, be continued by the owner under the management of Samuel G. Eberly, treasurer and superintendent of the solved company.

Besides the stables at Tenth and C treets southeast, the property includes two other buildings, one at No. 1912 E. M. These will be sold with the remainder of the property, but a lease will be taken on them as stables for the "cabs." One hundred and fifty men employed as drivers by the herdic lines will be thrown out of employment when the service is discontinued tenight. Between 600 and 700 horses will be thrown on the market. The Herdic Phacton Company was organized in 1879, the first coach being run on New Year's Day, 1880. The herdics ran on two routes, one from East Capitol and Tenth streets to the Capitol, down the Avenue and out to the Bound ary, via Sixteenth street. The other route was from H street northeast to Fifth street, to F street, to Fifteenth street, and along Pennsylvania avenuetween Fifteenth and Seventeenth streetthence to Twenty-second and 6 streets northwest. The passengers transferred of Jackson place and the Avenue, opposite the Lafayette statue. Col. Joseph D. Potts, who originally or ganized the company, invested $250,000 in it. A mortgage of $100,000 was further placed on it, but this was paid off in a few years. The venture has been profit able from the first and today is on a substantial paying basis. MARKET SLIGHTLY BULLISH. Sugar and Chicago Gas Led the Rise in Stocks.

New York March 31. Firmness characperized the trading at the Stock Exchange during the early session. The strength of the market was mainly due to the efforts making in Washington to neutralize the effect of the trans-Missouri decision. The bulk of the buying, however, consisted of covering of shorts, and there was little disposition on the part of the promi-nent buils to enter into extensive contracts for the long account, pending action by Congress in the matter of the Foraker bill to legalize pooling. London houses were less prominent in the dealings, but the foreigners, if anything, continue

The advance in prices ranged from 1-2 to 2 per cent, Tobacco leading. The stock was bought on semi-official statements that the directors will today declare a divi dend of 3 per cent. Sugar and Chicago Gas were also in brisk request. Sugar moved up to 111 1-2, and was strengthened by a further advance of 1-16 cent per pound in certain grades of refined. Jersey Central was notably weak, selling down 2 5-8 per cent to 80 3-8. Yesterday the stock brought 85 7-8. The decline brought out long stock, and reports were again current that the management intended to reduce the dividend. Speculation at 11 clock was irregular and somewhat fever-Jersey Central dropped to 781-4 after 11 o'clock on heavy trading. Considerable long stock was thrown on the mar ket and at one time there was an appre to demoralization Manhattan was another weak spot falling to 83 1-2 on the reduction of the dividend to 2 per cent quarterly This reduction was a distinct disappointment view of the recent reports that the regular rate would be maintained. The eneral list held tolerably steady and receded only 1-8a1-2 per cent. Speculation at noon was harely steady in tone.
